KARL MCCONNON

From Dublin. Now living in Israel.

NEW SINGLE

FOR ZION'S SAKE

OUT 8 JANUARY 2027

Karl's most direct song: a driving rock vow whose chorus is taken almost word for word from Isaiah 62 — "For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her vindication shines out like the dawn." An Irish artist who now lives in Israel and is raising his family there, he wrote it as a vow of loyalty to Jerusalem, at a moment when many artists chose boycotts. The song came to life after he joined his wife, Bar, at synagogue for Yom Kippur prayers, when the melodies of the people praying showed him exactly what needed to be said.

Co-produced by Guy Mar and Moshe "Atraf" Asaraf of Hadag Nahash.
